Visited White Chapel Liverpool where we dropped off donations.</li> <li>Future of Activities motion passed both AMM &amp; SU Trustee board but following voting amendments post SU Trustee board the motion fell. Discussions have been taking place among staff after the motion passed &amp; other models have been suggested to utilise student input in the running of</li> </ul> activities as this would hold a lower cost.

Section 3 | Project Plans

1. The Sanctuary

Objective	To get more Society & Student Engagement
Stakeholders	Dan B (Vice President Student Activities)
Budget Line	Campaigns & Projects
Proposed Budget	£200
Outputs/ Activities	Timeline
The Sanctuary Sessions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Rebranded the area at the start of the academic year to follow the 5 ways to mental health guidelines set out by the NHS.</li> <li>- Running weekly sessions that are open all. Attendance has been low, so I have set out to alter the day to best suit student timetables.</li> <li>- Worked with Student Services to add The Sanctuary to the list of places for students to use when feeling homesick or are part of the self-harm support group.</li> <li>- Four societies showing interest in getting involved.</li> </ul>
Redevelopment of area	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Throughout the summer I have reached an agreement with the University on weekly maintenance of the area so that it does not fall into disrepute.</li> <li>- A proposal has been put in place to put a larger storage/ seating area with the potential for a planting bed redevelopment over winter.</li> </ul>
Give It A Grow	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- During World mental health day, we worked with the sustainable &amp; conversation society to run a GIAG session to show students where the allotment was &amp; cook food grown at EHU.</li> </ul>
Garden Party	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Organised a community event with students, staff &amp; the local community.</li> <li>- 2 societies were able to attend with around 50 students arriving on a day where EHU sent out extreme weather warnings of both wind &amp; rain.</li> </ul>
Other activities TBC	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- After the success of the Garden Party, student have asked for similar events to be held. With a few of the items already purchased the consecutive event cost would be lower.</li> <li>- Partnership with Café 53° North has been established to reuse all coffee grounds in The sanctuary.</li> </ul>
Outcomes/Impact	Student engagement in campaign; Increased knowledge of area & greater involvement.

2. Project Bee

Objective	To educate more student on what Sustainable Development Goals are & engagement more students in sustainability.
Stakeholders	Dan B (Vice President Student Activities)

Budget Line	Campaigns &amp; Projects
Proposed Budget	£800
Outputs/ Activities	Timeline
The Bee Hives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Students put forward idea of Bee Hives to University Student Opportunity Fund but was rejected.</li> <li>- Reached out &amp; liaised with students &amp; department to help create more student opportunities within sustainability.</li> <li>- Successfully brought onto campus 23/08/18 &amp; are doing well as we head into the colder months.</li> <li>- Biweekly inspections will soon turn to monthly over the winter with a ballot being put in place for those who would like the experience of opening the hive.</li> <li>- Put forward a nomination for DEFRA &amp; Green Flag award, Bees Needs 2018.</li> </ul>
Bee Society development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Students were successful in their application to become a society.</li> <li>- We then worked with the committee to ensure the necessary</li> </ul>
Increasing student research opportunities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Programmes within Biology have already begun to adopt research projects that involve the Bee Hives.</li> </ul>
Outcomes/Impact	Improve awareness of bee population decline through ethical education of bee keeping & experiences. This will be evaluated through bee events throughout the year & on social media. These will take place into spring once the hives have rested & bees emerge after the cold months.

3. GIAG

Objective	To get more Society, Club & Student Engagement
Stakeholders	Dan B (Vice President Student Activities)
